

Graduate Program in Socio-Legal Studies
Directed Reading Form
SLST 5900 3.0

Regulations:

The Directed Reading option is available in the Fall, Winter and Summer terms and can only be worth 3 credits. Normally students can only take one Directed Reading course during the course of their degree.

Application Deadline:

Applications are due by the “last date to enroll without permission of course instructor” as per the published important dates for the term in question on the Graduate Studies website:

<http://gradstudies.yorku.ca/current-students/student-status/important-dates/>

Name
SID		Term &amp; Year
Course Title (no more than 40 characters including spaces)
Course Director:
Deadline to submit final course work to supervisor (York University grade reporting deadline is: 15 January (Fall courses), 15 May (Winter courses), 15 September (Summer courses):

Please provide a course description, list of assignments, a bibliography and a grade breakdown for the course. This is best done by providing a course syllabus.

Student signature: _____ Date: _____

Course Director signature: _____ Date: _____

GPD signature: _____ Date: _____

Please return this completed form to the Socio-Legal Studies Program Office in Ross South 735. Students cannot enroll in the course until receiving approval from the Graduate Program Director.